

Two aging corporate executives are sent to the company's resort in the Appalachian Mountains. There have setup camp in the woods and are waiting for two of the company's new employees to arrive. Just out of college and full of technology, Cody and Sprint come crashing thru the woods to the fire.

Sprint	Hey Cody? I found the camp! Hey guys. Why are you guys sleeping by the fire?
Ned	Oh ..ah...we ah were just gazing at the stars.
Leroy	Ya . They're just beautiful. What took you so long anyway?
Cody	Well... my GPS program I wrote had trouble linking into my cyber map on my laptop with the coordinates I put in for where the camp was. Or it could have been some type of magnetic anomaly at the north pole amplified by the aurora borealis causing a variance in the projected target. Not sure.
Sprint	Or user error by one Cody Banks. How long you been here guys?
Ned	Bout thee hours.
Cody	How did you beat us anyway? We left base camp from the same spot around the same time. How'd you find it?
Ned	Well remember those trails that were marked with signs and arrows pointing to the campsite?
Sprint	Ya?
Ned	We followed them.
Cody	Oh. Well I guess that works too.
Ned	Yes it does Cody yes it does. Say how about some coffee boys?
Sprint	Sure, sounds good.
Cody	None for me I'm already kinda wireless from my last cup.
Sprint	You mean wired.
Cody	Oh yea. Guess my minds always thinking on the tech side.
Sprint	Me too. I was born for it.
Leroy	What'da mean by that?
Sprint	Well my parents said when all my brothers and sisters were born their first words were either mama or dada but that my first word was Google!
Cody	Ya I walk around with so much electronics with my smart phone, tablet, GPS and all my parents got worried when Y2K came around. They thought I might seize up at midnight. And when I was two years old I got my first I-pod and figured it all out. Thought that's what they meant to be PODDY trained.

Sprint	Nice. Got me fist cell phone when I was six months old.
Leroy	Six months old? You're kidding. There's no way you could talk at six months. Why would you need a cell phone?
Sprint	I couldn't talk yet but I could text!
Ned	Oh man.
Sprint	Hey it is pretty cool out here. Check those stars out Cody.
Cody	Ya, reminds me of that star field video game.
Ned	Wow, get your mind off the tech boys and take in nature at its best.
Leroy	Ya it really is nice out here. - pause - Say either of you boys married?
Cody	Nope.
Sprint	Not yet, engaged though. Eunice El from Portland Oregon. I'll be living here in NY to pursue my career and she'll stay in Portland for hers.
Leroy	After you're married?
Sprint	Sure. We'll both fly and meet on weekends. It's a different world nowadays.
Ned	I guess so. Won't you miss her during the week?
Sprint	Nah. We agreed we'd each have breakfast at 6:30 sharp and turn on our video cell phones so as we can see each other and share a cup of Java together.
Ned	That sounds romantic. I admit I may have put my career first, but this is taking it to another level.
Cody	I see you guys got your tent up already. Hey Sprint lets pitch our tent.
Sprint	Okay – got it right here.
Ned	Need some help with that boys?
Cody	Oh no, we're way ahead of the game. We knew we were going camping so Sprint and I designed this new porta-tent .
Sprint	Yep. All we gotta do is press this here button and boom instant tent.
Cody	You see there's a small micro-processor we programmed to automatically stake it in the ground, inflate it and setup the poles.
Sprint	Why fight setting up a tent – use technology!
Cody	Brains over bronze. Go ahead Sprint have the honors.
Sprint	Alright here we go. We actually haven't field tested this yet but I'm sure it will work. Presses button and a small floatable raft inflates.
Ned	Laughing along with Leroy Real nice boys! Never seen a tent quite like that.
Leroy	Ya, I don't know if it will keep you dry at night but at least you won't drown. Laughing along with Ned
Sprint	I don't understand. What happened?

Cody	Maybe we need to adjust the flux capacitor.
Ned	Maybe you should use the tent you were assigned at base camp.
Cody	Hmmm guess we'll have to. Hey guys where's the bathroom at?
Leroy	Laughs. It's back over there. Points The highest technology you'll find there is that it's a 2 holer!
